MAYDAY PARADE AND FESTIVAL — SUNDAY, MAY 2, 2010

2010 Join-In Section and Information Table Brochure

The MayDay Parade and Festival draws huge crowds of people each year. Hosting an Information Table at the Festival or being part of the Join-In Section of the Parade are great ways for an organization to raise public awareness. Sign up to have an Information Table or to be in the Join-In Section by completing the attached form and returning it with the required fee. Sign up for both by April 23 and save $15!

In the Heart of the Beast takes great care and pride in maintaining the non-commercial tone of this family-friendly parade and festival. Information Tables and the Join-In Section of the Parade provide a platform for grassroots organizations to share their interests with our community. Please remember that because many young children attend this event with their families, your message needs to be delivered in a manner that is appropriate for general audiences. Also, donations, monetary solicitations or sales of any kind are not permitted along the parade route or in the park.

The parade begins at 1:00 p.m. and reaches Powderhorn Park around 3:00 p.m. The rain date for the event is Sunday, May 9, 2010. Registration fees are non-refundable.

In keeping with the spirit of MayDay we accept volunteer hours in exchange for the registration fees for both the Join-In Section and Information Tables. To enroll in the volunteer program check the appropriate VOLUNTEER box. Upon receiving your application our Volunteer Coordinator will contact you and arrange for people from your organization to provide 4 to 8 hours of volunteer service on the day of the event. You must still include payment for the full registration fee. A refund will be mailed to you following the event after your group's volunteer hours are confirmed.

Please read the guidelines for each part of the event that you plan to participate in, to make sure you understand the terms of this agreement.

2010 MayDay Parade JOIN-IN Section

Being a part of the MayDay Parade as it goes down Bloomington Avenue is a wonderful way for your group or organization to strut its stuff and to be part of this joyous event. In addition to a registration fee of $50 to help offset staffing cost for this aspect of the parade, we have a few simple rules that everyone in the Parade is required to observe:

1. You must have a banner that identifies your group or organization — get creative and bring your own puppets and performance art to communicate your message to the Parade audience.
2. No motorized vehicles are allowed.
3. No amplified sound or megaphones.
4. No soliciting of any kind.
5. No distribution of flyers, food or other items.
6. Your message and the delivery of that message must be peaceful and appropriate for an audience that has many young children present.
7. Parade participants must be respectful and follow the directions of parade officials, police officers and others charged with keeping the parade a safe and fun experience.
8. Line-up for the Join-In section is first come, first served and begins at Noon on Sunday, May 2 at Cedar Field (25th Street & Cedar Avenue). You must check in with the Join-In coordinator to receive your line up number. Rain date is Sunday, May 9. All puppets created for the Join-In section must be made at your own expense outside of the MayDay public workshops. (For information about the story-telling part of the parade, please visit www.hobt.org.)
